My works

This travel advertisement was designed as a practice project to highlight and test the creativity skills. This design aimed at capturing the target audience's attention and driving engagement. This design successfully employed a combination of bold typography, vibrant colors, and compelling imagery to communicate key messages effectively.

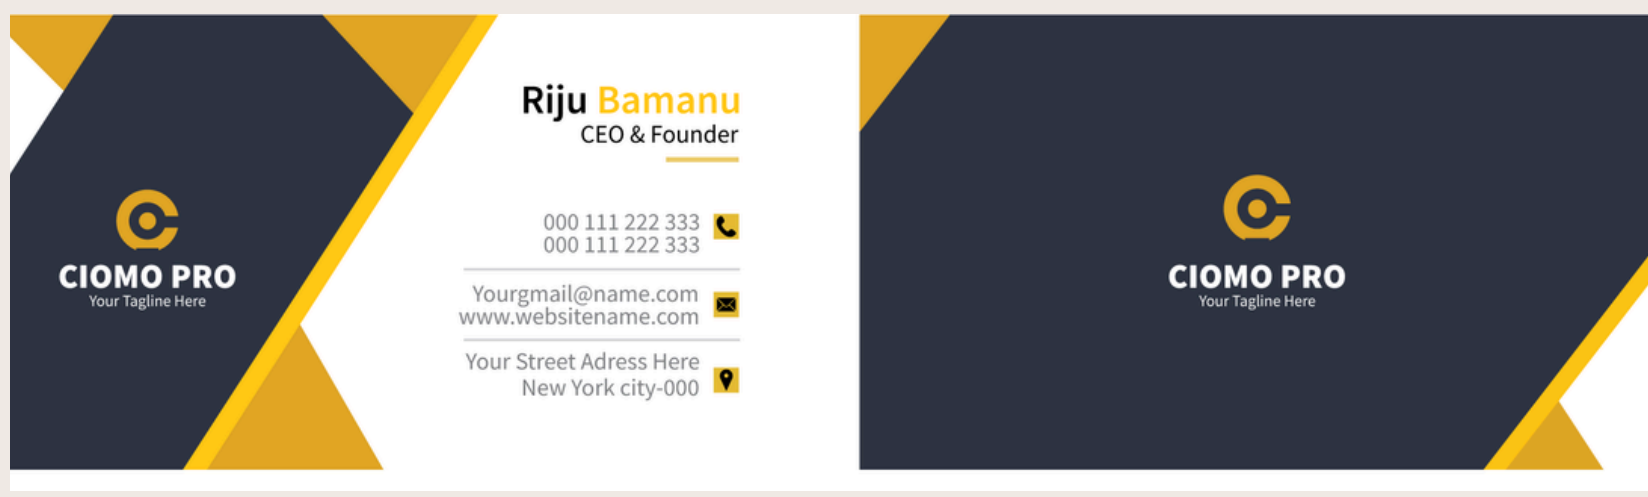

This brochure design project focuses on promoting study abroad opportunities with Dolphin Education. It highlights top English-speaking countries such as Australia, Canada, New Zealand, the UK, and the USA. The design uses a clean, modern layout with vibrant images and national flags to attract prospective students.

Poster Design

This poster design project was created as part of my personal graphic design practice to improve my creativity and visual communication skills. The main focus of this project was to explore modern layouts, typography, color combinations, and balanced composition while designing attractive promotional posters.

This flyer design aims to market the services of a creative agency focused on business growth solutions. The design features a professional image of a confident businesswoman, strong use of orange and black color accents, and a geometric layout that guides the viewer through the content. It highlights the agency's services, including web design and search optimization, with icons and bullet points for easy scanning.

This professional visiting card design the personality and professionalism of the individuals or businesses represented. I paid close attention to layout, font selection, and color harmony to create memorable and functional cards. This reflects design ensures simplicity while maintaining a distinctive style to facilitate easy contact sharing and positive brand impressions.
